October is here and the cooler weather is upon us but remember we live in New England and we could possibly have another heatwave or we could have snow.

This month will be a month of great classes, next month I will hold the annual Holiday Workshop which will be 4 classes of quick projects great for gift giving, and in December let's not forget Anee K Sweet-McNamara will be here on December 1 to teach her Micro-Macrame Boho-Bombshell Earrings.

Call the store @ (508) 763-2000 to reserve your seat for any of the classes

Boho-Bombshell Earrings

Saturday, December 1 @10: 00 am

Forget wooden-eyed owls and burlap-textured plant hangers... this ain't yo' mama's macrame! Ameerun with Scissors makes Micro-Macrame fast, fun and fashionable. Books on the subject can be a confusing jumble of diagrams and videos sometimes omit the "secrets" that make the work easier. Join Ameerun and learn how simple it is to weave two basic knots into these swingy, lightweight earrings.

All levels are welcome.

Seating will be limited so reserve your seat soon.

Kits will be available in lots of different color-ways.

Call (508) 763-2000 to reserve your seat, deposit required.
